

fly high, lay low

Kick-off

A wandering mind until the siren bell rang with all worries lost

From here it begins a land of another world absorbing me into it

Budding & detaching

It is nature's rule
To attach and then move on
To ultimately detach

Curiosity & void

What is there beyond?
I climb, I break- curious Nothing's there beyond

It's more exciting, the fantasy of having Than actually owning

Swarmed and Flee
Wayfinding & losing

Often we think we are lost,
But the truth is that, we Always find our own way

Overcrowd, surround
It's time to run & flee
And find the open

Standing ground

Following the gut Disappointing all, is Inevitable

Actions influence
Sometimes a mere presence does Standing ground is key

Soaked & absorbed

Osmosis is key
High to low, optimizes
Balancing the ground

Soaked in grass, I was Gazing at the cloudy sky Absorbed into the earth

float & fly
Breathe more deeply intervention.

↳ a net/hammock embracing a puddle.

puddle + hammock

bringing the sky & earth together.

Seeking adventure

Monotonous mind
Is in path taken the most Go! Seek adventure!

Unconventional
Is appreciated
When taken the risk

3

soak in mud
"get dirty"

Blending in & contended

Seeking more and more Constantly keeps us running
Will there be an end?

Instead, look around Look inward, feel the space and Stay there! & blend in.
